Point Ellice House Preservation Society Membership

Membership in the Point Ellice House Preservation Society (PEHPS) helps conserve and protect this historic property. Point Ellice House is owned by the Province of British Columbia and administered by the Point Ellice House Preservation Society, a non-profit organization with a volunteer Board of Directors. Daily operations are managed by staff and a team of dedicated volunteers. Members help the society carry out education, outreach, conservation, and research activities. As a member, you will help:

- Preserve and protect one of the last remaining Victorian Villas in Victoria
- Expand opportunities for education about the site, area, and its many stories
- Ensure the maintenance and restoration of the heritage site and its collection

In addition, members also receive:

- Free admission to the site during open hours with Membership Card.
- A Guest Pass for admission to the House
- Priority notification of special events
- A vote at the Annual General Meeting
